

For students and staff, Campus Research makes online searching easier, faster and more precise.

When you need timely news and reliable business and legal information, Campus Research® delivers. Its intuitive user interface and practical tools are the result of extensive usability studies with college and university students and librarians.

LOOK INSIDE FOR 11 WAYS CAMPUS RESEARCH CAN IMPROVE YOUR RESEARCH.

1 Basic Search and Advanced Search

Standard Internet terminology; in both the Law and News & Business tabs, students can select the option they want to use.

2 Search Tips

Helpful hints located near search boxes and more via More search tips link.

3 Advanced Search template

Available in both tabs, this allows students to conduct precise searches without knowing Boolean logic; simply:

- > Enter search terms
- > Choose connectors ("and"/"or") from the menus
- > Exclude terms ("not" field)
- > Restrict by date

4 Legal categories

Search as many as 10 types of legal materials at once.

5 Shortcuts

Take the quick route to popular legal features and information:

- > Content List
- > Searching by citation
- > KeySearch®
- > U.S. Constitution and state constitution
- > Famous cases
- > Topical legal guides
- > Pre-law materials, and more

6 Search limits

Look only in headlines and lead paragraphs for search terms.

7 Duplicate document identification

You won't waste time viewing the same information multiple times.

8 Shortcuts

Quick linking to:
 > Publications List
 > Hoover's Company Records
 > SEC Filings

9 News categories

A simplified list that makes it easier to refine your News & Business search.

Note: Not all Campus Research subscriptions include News & Business content.

10 Publications List

Click on the alphabetical list to see all News & Business publications available; also, you can learn more about a publication by clicking its Scope button.

The Law tab has a similar feature, the Content List.

11 Simple, intuitive searching

In both the Law tab and News & Business tab, the Basic Search box is clean and uncluttered for fast, easy use.
